Think Big, But Donate Small

A client recently asked Connie Sue for advice in anticipation of a large personal property inheritance. "Not that long ago, I actually looked forward to being the keeper of my mother's lovely things," she said. "But now, the thought of going through her things and making all those decisions fills me with dread. What can I do?" READ CONNIE SUE'S ADVICE.

Life's Transitions Can Be a Drag

On productivity, attendance, morale, initiative, get-up-and-go...
Your employees give you their all. Why not help them through life's transitions, especially the ones that get overlooked? Like mother's move to assisted living. Or dad's passing.
