It's just Stuff!

Helping People Move On

Spring is a busy season for doing the chores and moving on. After pricing hundreds of items in a ten room house for a client recently, she declared that she just couldn't DO ALL THIS. Finally she admitted she could deal with just-one-room if that was all there was to sell or donate. And that's all you have to do - just one room at a time. No matter what option you use to liquidate or distill personal property, the first question is 'what is it worth?'. I can price 60 to 100 items an hour. Just call or email.

Beaded Bags For Sale

Beaded Bags are Back

In every estate that I price these days, there are beaded bags in the dresser drawers or closet. Stashed with silk scarves and vintage jewelry, they always inspire memories of past occasions. As often happens, 'what's old is new again' and modern models of these bags are selling at Target Stores for $25ish, without the satin lining or fashionable labels. Pricing an estate, I assign a value from $12 to $35 based on label, condition, and color. In antique malls they are priced from $35 to $60.

Consider hosting an appraisal party in your home . Costs begin at \$120 an hour and just

Student Directed Class

On April 8th at Motlow State Community College's main campus in Lynchburg, TN, students own possessions will be the subject of the day's class. As they arrive, their heirlooms and collectibles will be placed in categories for appraisal and discussion during the class. This new approach to the popular spectator sport of public antique appraisals will be more detailed in the information provided and longer than the typical 1 or 2 hour appraisal event.
